THE OLD BRICK ACADEMY

Built 1818, Charles Bulfinch, Architect.
Used for many years as gymnasium.
Remodeled 1902, for Academy Dining Hall.

The morning came; I reached the classic hall;

* * * * *

How all comes back! the upward slanting floor—
The masters' thrones that flank the central door—
The long outstretching alleys that divide
The rows of desks that stand on either side.

PREFATORY NOTE

The compilation of this Catalogue was begun in 1878, the year of the Centennial Celebration, on the plan of the ordinary college triennial. This was afterward modified so as to include biographical data, deemed worthy of preservation. The record of students, extended beyond the half-century limit to 1830, the date of the organization of the Teachers' Seminary (at the wish of Principal Bancroft, who was deeply interested in the work), was completed and stereotyped in 1892. Issued now for the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the Academy, sketches of all the Trustees, Principals and Assistant Instructors have been added, together with a list of the "Divinity Students" in Phillips Academy before the founding of the Andover Theological Seminary.

Grateful acknowledgment is made to librarians, college statisticians, public registrars and numerous other correspondents for courteous aid rendered during all these years. Those interested in the correct preservation of such genealogical and historical facts will confer a favor by making note of any important errors or omissions.

C. C. CARPENTER.

ANDOVER, MASS., June, 1903.
